Initiative Petitions For Smaller Legislature Prepared.

Columbus, O., Aug. 5.—From liberal sources comes the announcement that an initiative petition submitting a constitutional amendment for a small legislature will be filed late today.
Governor Cox was surprised when he heard the announcement, as he had been promised the proposition would be dropped.

To initiate a constitutional amendment requires 194,000 names from 45 counties. It was stated here that the petitions will contain upwards of 115, 000 or 120,000 names. They were being prepared in Dayton, it was said, under the supervision of Gale M.
Hartley, a liberal league representative. Today is the last in which petitions asking for such an amendment can be filed.

The proposal contemplates a house of representatives of 50 members and a senate of 22, in contrast with a present house of 123 and a senate of 33. The amendment was originally written by Representative Robert Black of Hamilton county, but he severed his connection with the proposition when he learned of the opposition of Governor Cox.

It is opposed by the rural element, since it would put control of the assembly in the hands of city members.
The proposal means a bitter fight during the campaign over the temperance issue.

MONSTER PAYS WITH HIS LIFE

KING OF WHITE SLAVERS

Fink the Suicide Had String of Resorts in Eastern States.

Philadelphia, Aug. 5.—Abraham Fink, who committed suicide in New York after he had shot Rebecca Silverman, one of his victims, was known in this city as the "king of the white slavers," and left, it is said, from $50,000 to $75,000. Thirteen years ago he lured the Silverman girl away from home. She was the daughter of Meyer Silverman, manufacturer, of Roxbury, Mass. Fink was then 43 and the girl was but 14. For more than 12 years he compelled her to live in resorts in numerous cities.

All the years the woman was in the clutches of Fink she was known as Violet Montner. Her father spent nearly $10,000 to find her after Fink had lured her from home.

The local police declare that Fink had a string of resorts and was represented in every city between New York and Chicago. His chief duty was to make his rounds regularly and collect his tolls.

Warnes and Kilpatrick Tax Laws
Go to the People.

Columbus, O., Aug. 5.—Petitions for referendums on the Warnes tax assessor law and the Kilpatrick tax law were filed with the secretary of state by Charles Gungwer, secretary of the Ohio Equity association. The referendum petitions on the Warnes law contain 74,509 names, said to be over 2 per cent of the electors of 67 counties of the state. The petitions on the Kilpatrick law have 72,480 names, said to be over 2 per cent of the electors of 68 counties.

The Warnes law provides for the appointment of tax assessors by the state tax commission, doing away with the election of assessors. The Kilpatrick law removes the interior limitations of the Smith law. Since the referendum on the Warnes law is asked assessors must be elected this fall.

EXPRESS RATES SLASHED

Interstate Commerce Commission Orders Sweeping Reductions.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Sweeping reductions in express rates on parcels all over the country were ordered by the interstate commerce commission.
The new reduced rates become effective Oct. 15. The reductions range from about 10 to 60 per cent. For two years the new rates are to be "experimental," the commission declared.
Unless too great loss of revenue results to the express companies, they will become permanent.

Practically all rates on parcels under 50 pounds are radically lowered.
On small packages carried more than 200 miles and less than 3,000 miles the new rates are nearly all lower than the parcel post rates. Over 3,000 miles the express and parcel service will cost the same.

GOMEZ IN THE FIELD

Will Lead Troops in the Campaign Against Castro's Forces.

Washington, Aug. 5.—President Gomez of Venezuela will lead the government troops in person in the campaign against the revolution started by Cipriano Castro, according to state department dispatches. A state of revolution has been declared to exist in Venezuela and martial law has been proclaimed throughout the republic.

It is reported that General Telleria is leading the revolutionists in the Falcon district and a body of rebels is said to have been landed on Gonzalez peninsula.

The cruiser Des Moines sailed from Brunswick, Ga., for La Guayra, on the coast of Venezuela. Henry F. Tennant of the state department is on board, and he will take charge of the legation at Caracas upon his arrival.
Secretary Bryan declined to indicate the policy of this government toward the revolution and its leader.

GOES TO MEXICO AS PEACEMAKER

John Lind the President's Personal Representative.

AMBASSADOR WILSON DROPPED

Former Governor of Minnesota Will Endeavor to Induce the Warring Factions in Mexico to Reach an Understanding—Secretary of State
Bryan Announces Important Developments in the Situation.

Washington, Aug. 5.—The initiation of President Wilson's policy of mediation with respect to Mexico was announced when Secretary of State Bryan made public the fact that Former Governor John Lind of Minnesota had left Washington for Mexico City, where he will be the personal representative of the president and adviser to the American embassy.

To Mr. Lind the president has entrusted the task of trying to induce the federal government and the representatives of the rebels temporarily to lay aside their difficulties, pending an election in Mexico, with the understanding that the United States will recognize the government which thus may be brought into being.

Mr. Bryan's statement was as follows: "Ex-Governor John Lind of Minnesota has been sent to Mexico as the special representative of the president to act as adviser to the embassy in the present situation. When the president is ready to communicate with the Mexican authorities as to the restoration of peace he will make public his views."

This announcement followed closely on the heels of the acceptance of the resignation of Henry Lane Wilson as ambassador to Mexico. Mr.
Lind virtually takes the place in the embassy at Mexico City made vacant by the dismissal of Ambassador Wilson.

Mr. Wilson has been held on waiting orders by the department of state and on Aug. 14 will enter upon a status of leave of absence which will continue until Oct. 14, when his resignation will become effective. The administration has forbidden him to go to Mexico City to adjust his personal affairs between now and Oct. 14.

Secretary Bryan's announcement of the acceptance of Mr. Wilson's resignation was as follows: "Ambassador Wilson's resignation has been accepted to take effect Oct. 14. The part which he felt it his duty to take in the earlier stages of the recent revolution in Mexico would make it impossible for him to represent the views of the present administration, in view of the situation which now exists."

The man the president has selected as his special representative in Mexico is a Swede. He served in the house of representatives on the Republican side at the same time Bryan was occupying a seat on the Democratic side. In 1896 Lind went over to the Bryan cause as a "Silver Republican" and since has been known as "an original Bryan man."

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF NEW YORK WERE ATTACKED? WAR AND NAVY DEPARTMENTS WILL NOW FIND OUT

New York, Aug. 5.—What would happen if a foreign fleet tried to force its way into the eastern end of Long Island sound and attack New York? This question has long been a favorite one for those who like to speculate as to the impregnability of the country's greatest city against attack in time of war. The war and navy departments are going to try to find the answer. The North Atlantic fleet, under Rear Admiral Badger, will try to force its way into the sound past three forts which now guard the eastern mouth—namely, Terry, Michie and Wright.

Twenty companies of coast defense artillery will man the three forts and try to keep the battleships and submarines out. Theoretical war will be fought and scientific problems worked out. The test ought to interest the whole country, for it is of vital importance.

THREE MEN PERISH IN FIRE WHICH THREATEN LIVES OF FORMER WASHINGTONIANS

Odd Ott, Henry Lawell, C. W. Fritz, and Family Have Close Calls In Fire Which Destroyed Garage.

GEO. B. SWOPE STOCKHOLDER IN THE COMPANY WIPED OUT

Spectacular Fire Results When Gasoline of Carbide Lets Go In Four Story Block in Springfield, Where Former Local Men Were Conducting a Big Garage.

A number of former residents of this city, all of whom were interested in the Motor Service Company, of Springfield, had narrow escapes from death when the Henry block, a four story building, was nearly destroyed by fire which resulted in the death of three persons and the serious injury of a number of others.

The fire started in the basement of the building, and the Motor Service Company, of which C. W. Fritz, formerly of this city, is president, was almost wiped out of business in the $25,000 blaze which followed.

Harry Lawell, also a former resident of this place and a heavy stockholder in the Motor Service Company and Odd Ott, who left Washington some two months ago, was employed in the building when the fire occurred. George B. Swope of this city, was a stockholder in the company.

The blaze started after two terrific explosions in the basement, the second coming within a few seconds after the first. A number of men were at work in the basement and suffered fatal burns. Mr. Fritz and his two children were almost caught in the death trap, while Mr. Lawell, and Mr. Ott and Mrs. Fritz, together with a number of other persons had close calls from death.

A few moments before the fire started, Mrs. Fritz and children were in the building, and the two youngsters asked if they could go down into the basement where they thought their father was at work. Permission was given and they started, but discovering their father on the sidewalk in front of the building they ran out on the street. Mr. Lawell was in the office and Mr. Ott and Mrs. Fritz were standing about the center of the room.

With a roar like thunder a heavy explosion shook the building, throwing them all to the floor. Ott leaped to his feet and rushed to the door which had been hurled shut, and was trying to open it when the second explosion, more sharp and deadly than the first, took place. Every window in the building was broken out and the walls cracked.

By the hardest kind of work the occupants of the place fought their way to the street and were saved. But the unfortunate men in the basement could not escape until their clothing was on fire. Arthur Detrick and James May, employees of the company, died within a few hours. Don Teegarden, another employee, lingered until Monday and death relieved his sufferings.

Other occupants of the building escaped by leaving the structure at once. Had the fire occurred in the night a half score or more persons would have perished.

It is claimed that men smoking cigarettes near a tank of gasoline, or carbide, caused the fire. One of the men, who later died, said that he had warned the boys to quit smoking cigarettes about the place.

Whether the company will re-organize has not been announced, but some of the stockholders will be day evening, Aug. 7th. Good music heavy losers. Mr. Swope, of this city, was not a heavy stockholder in everybody.

UNUSUAL ACCIDENT CAUSES BROKEN JAW

Ward Gregg, 28, residing near Octa, was brought to the Fayette Hospital Monday evening, suffering with a badly fractured jaw, the result of a pitchfork handle striking him violently across the face when the pitchfork became entangled in a belt of a threshing machine.

Gregg was pitching wheat from a wagon into the separator and in some way the tines of the fork were caught in the drive belt and the fork hurled with great force, striking him a blow that caused unconsciousness. He remained unconscious for sometime. A physician was summoned and found that the services of an expert would be required to set the broken jaw. He was then brought to this city.

Dr. Sherman Leach, of Columbus, was summoned, and with the assistance of Drs. Brown, Marchant and McFadden, performed the difficult operation of drilling through the bones and binding them together with silver wire.

He was later taken home and within the next month or two will be completely recovered with the jaw bones in proper place and little or no marks of the wound.

HAVE GUNS READY TO GREET PROWLER

With the reappearance of the man who has been prowling about the city, entering or trying to enter residences in the dead of night, rusty and long unused guns have been pulled from their hiding places and oiled and placed in readiness for instant use.

"Just let a man show himself about my residence and be found peeping or trying to enter the house, and I will take a great deal of pleasure in killing him on the spot," said an East Temple street resident in mentioning the fact that he had oiled his pistol and placed it where he could easily reach it at night.

Two or three additional places where the fellow has been frightened away have come to light within the past day.

COUNCIL HOLDS SHORT SESSION

Owing to the absence of three members—McLain, Cox and Chapman, the regular session of the city council lasted about three minutes. Monday night, adjournment being taken until Monday night of next week.

As no business could be conducted the meeting was simply called to order by President Light and a motion to adjourn was made.

It was expected that action would be taken on certain street improvements and the $10,000 bond issue for purchasing a fire engine.

The trial of Clark Denious, charged with having illegal fishing tackle in his possession, occurred Tuesday morning before Justice Craig, and resulted in a fine of $25 and the costs, which was suspended, providing he go hence and forever walk in the path of lawfulness.

The net which was confiscated by Deputy State Game Warden, J. S. Sackett, was returned to Denious. It was the one which Denious claimed was a mule net.

SECOND DAY OF ANNUAL INSTITUTE

135 Teachers Enrolled Today Noon And The Most Successful Institute Ever Held in the City is Moving Forward With Interest on the Increase—Both Speakers Are Genuine Instructors.

The Teachers' Institute is proving one of the most successful ever held in this city and Tuesday noon the attendance had reached 135, or two less than the number enrolled last year.

Both of the instructors are proving their right to the title and each of their addresses has met with hearty approval and furnished the Fayette County Teachers room for thought and food for use in the shaping of the pupils' career.

Monday afternoon Prof. Ellis spoke on "Words" and Prof. Cookson on "The Mission of the Teacher."

Tuesday morning the session opened and Prof. Ellis was first to address the deeply interested teachers on "Language." He was followed by Prof. Cookson on "The Hive of B's." These "B's" consisted of "Be Charitable; be sympathetic; be natural; be cheerful; be careful; be frank; be honest; be patient." Both addresses were masterly, and indicated that the two men were familiar with each part of their talks.

The auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. was well filled when the afternoon session convened. Prof. Ellis again gave his auditors food for thought in a splendid address, using, "Ideals" for his topic. Following intermission the session resumed and Mr. Bowman delighted the audience with a solo.

Prof. Cookson's address on "Spiritual Element in School Poetry" followed the solo.

A ball game was announced for this evening, and considerable sport was predicted.

The social session will be held Wednesday night, and more than 100 teachers are expected to attend. The temperance address will be delivered by Prof. Cookson Wednesday morning at nine o'clock, and at 10:30 Prof. Ellis will speak on "Moral Training."

Supt. Ed. Dalley, of the Pickaway county consolidated schools, is a visitor at the institute today.

VICTIM IS WEAKER NO ARRESTS MADE

George W. Duffee Still Unconscious And With No Hope of Recovery, While No Arrests Have Been Made In Connection With The Case—Entire Citizenship Eager For Apprehension of the Man Who Committed the Foul Deed.

George W. Duffee, the veteran groceryman who was set upon by some unknown assassin and his skull crushed as he lay in bed Sunday morning about one o'clock, is still lying in an unconscious condition at the Fayette hospital, with absolutely no hope for his recovery, as the physicians have given his case up as hopeless.

He has not recovered or spoken a word, and if he knew who the fiend was who struck him down, the secret will probably be carried with him to the grave.

The injured man's strength commenced to fail Tuesday morning and his condition became more critical. There has been no change for the better and his condition continues to become still more critical as time advances, and death may be a matter of days or hours.

In the meantime the police have not located the man who committed the foul deed, and no reward has been offered for the apprehension of the man who may soon be wanted for murder instead of assault with intent to kill.

Public feeling has been greatly aroused by the attack on the helpless old groceryman, and everyone is eager for the capture of the villain that he may be given the full extent of the law for his awful work.

A demand has arisen for extraordinary efforts on the part of the authorities to locate the culprit, and many are still holding to the belief that citizens, the city, or Commissioners should offer a reward for the apprehension of the fellow.

ENDS HIS LIFE WITH REVOLVER

Harry Durrett, 45, well-to-do farmer and treasurer of Scioto township, Pickaway county, died Monday night from a wound inflicted Sunday with suicidal intent.

He used a 32 caliber revolver and the ball entered below the heart and came out in the right side of his back.

Frequent quarrels with his wife and children form part of the reason for his deed. A short time ago he severely whipped his daughter, a young woman, for keeping company with a young man whom he did not like. For that offense he was bound over to the grand jury and his trial was pending.

WAS SURE OF END HAD THREE METHODS

Paul Jones, of Ross county, died by his own hand after planning three ways of making sure of his attempted suicide.

He first drained a bottle of laudanum, and then placing the muzzle of a rifle close against his head, he pulled the trigger and sent a bullet crashing into his brain, ending his life.

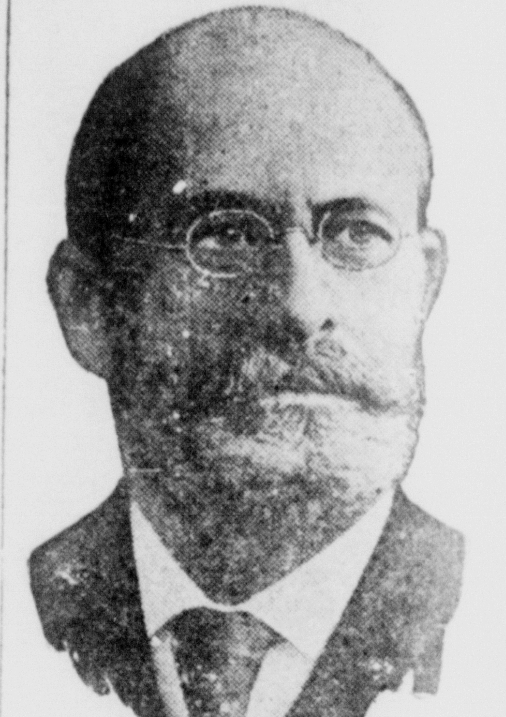

When his body was found there was a sharp razor beside him, and it was evident that he intended using the razor to open his arteries should the gun fail to do its work. He was 55 years of age and leaves a wife and one daughter. He had been suffering for months with tubercular trouble.

CRY IS RAISED FOR MORE RAIN

Fayette county has been in urgent need of a regular "goose drowner" for several days, and as a result of dry weather the crops are suffering and the country roads have become masses of dust which is stirred to a dense cloud by every passing vehicle.

The early corn is just entering the roasting ear stage and a good rain is necessary to insure it maturing properly. Farmers claim that one more heavy rain would "make" the corn crop, or insure proper maturing of the crop.

GENERAL BIXBY QUILTS U. S. ENGINEER CORPS TO BENEFIT FRIEND

Washington, Aug. 5.—The voluntary retirement of Brigadier General William H. Bixby, chief of the engineer corps, to take effect on Aug. 11, created interest. He will be succeeded by William T. Russell, senior colonel and now president of the New York harbor line board at New York City. Colonel Russell will serve only two months, as he is due to retire at the end of that time.

General Bixby, who was a classmate of Colonel Russell at West Point, applied for retirement at this time so that his position would be open to Colonel Russell before he became ineligible by virtue of retirement.

The Motorcycle Follies

Right now the wheezy explosive motorcycle is holding the center of the stage as a destroyer of human life. During the present season it has crowded the automobile and aeroplane into the back ground and the number of victims, in killed or maimed, which it has exacted is appalling.

The horror at a Cincinnati pleasure resort only a few days ago, when ten human lives were sacrificed, when a motorcycle jumped from the incline race course into the crowded grandstand like a demon with life, is still fresh in the minds of all.

Only a few days prior to that, in the same city, a young lady was crippled for life when a motorcycle, on which she was riding tandem, became unruly and, after plunging both the young lady and her escort into a ditch, seized her foot and literally tore it off.

These are only two of a hundred horrors of more or less magnitude, occurring every week.

There is no reason why laws preventing the misuse of these motorcycles should not be enacted, just as there are laws enacted to prevent suicide by other means.

Motorcycle racing in these devil traps of motordromes are neither beautiful to look upon, nor contests in which skill plays any part. There is absolutely nothing to attract except the chance which the contestants take with death.

Riders, day after day, "contest" in these races and thousands, day after day, attend those races expecting just what did happen at Cincinnati, to occur.

The day of waiting passes by and the thrill of anticipation is checked by the realization. A human life and sometimes several of them, pay the penalty as the prize of the sport.

Civilized communities should not permit such performances to be continued.

Man's ingenuity has builded the motorcycle and it could be made a useful, harmless vehicle. The perversion of man's creation to a murderous purpose should be forbidden by law.

Poetry For Today

MEMORY

I find I don't remember
About historic things;
The dynasties of Persia,
The conquest of the Romans,
Or Tyre or Sidon's fall;
The wars of Vandals, Goths and Huns
I don't recall at all.

I even find some trouble
Remembering the dates,
Of Lexington and Moonmouth;
I cannot name the states
That first made up the Union;
The truth is, I don't know
Just who succeeded Jefferson,
Some—well, some years ago.

But I remember clearly
Those dreamy days of June
When Rose was ever with me,
Ah, vanished all too soon!
Oh, clearly I remember
Those hours of sweet repose,
Those hours of quiet, calm content,
Before I married Rose.

BURNED BY COLD.

Liquid Air Will Produce a Worse Wound Than Intense Heat.

Whoever has applied a moistened finger to a piece of frosty metal in winter well remembers the painful experience thereby gained of the fact that cold as well as heat can blister the skin.

During some experiments in the production of excessively low temperatures Pictet, the French investigator, burned himself with cold several times, and the effects were so remarkable that he deemed them worthy of description to a body of scientific men.

It appears that there are two kinds or degrees of cold burn. In the case of the less severe "burns" the skin at first turns red, but becomes blue the next day. The inflamed spot swells, and a period varying from a month to six weeks elapses before the wound heals.

When the contact with the cold substance is longer and more complete a burn of the second degree is produced. A malignant and stubborn wound is formed, and the process of healing is very slow.

A drop of liquid air falling on Pictet's hand produced a cold burn which did not completely heal in six months, while a scorch from heat accidentally inflicted on the same hand and nearly at the same time was healed in ten or twelve days.—Harper's Weekly.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

Russia is added to the list of nations declining the invitation of the United States to participate in the Panama-Pacific exposition. Out of 49 nations invited to send representation to the fair 35 have replied. Of them 27 have accepted and 7 have declined, leaving 15 undecided. Russia's attitude is attributed to the action of congress in abrogating the treaty between the two nations because of Russia's refusal to issue transportation on a basis of equality with other foreigners to Jews who have become United States citizens.

Regular waterway service, both for passenger and freight traffic, will be started this month on the new Chicago to gulf route, according to the plans announced by a transportation company. The plans provide for transporting freight and passengers from Chicago to La Salle, Ill., by barges, routed through the big Chicago drainage canal and the Illinois and Michigan canal, connecting the river and lake. At La Salle a transfer will be made from the barges to steamers, which will continue down the Illinois and Mississippi rivers to New Orleans.

Describing the Morgan collection of American diamonds in the Museum at New York, the Museum Journal says: "The diamond crystals of American origin is quite unique, notably a diamond crystal weighing 16 carats, found in the gravel and clay of the Kettle Moraine, near Eagle, Waukesha county, Wis. Another of 4 carats, a perfect octahedron, from Dane county, Wis.; 2 diamonds of about 5 carats each, from Alabama. The collection includes pink, brown, yellow and white stones from Africa and also south America."

Reductions in express rates of Wells Fargo amounting to $750,000 a year, was ordered by the state railroad commission of California. At present the company makes a net yearly profit of $842,000, on property valued at $613,000, or 136 per cent on its investment. The finding pronounces the express companies "a parasite on the railroads" and recommends that instead of appealing for permission to increase rates, the railroads look into this express situation.

To improve his department's publications and to prevent waste in distribution, Secretary of Agriculture Houston, announced that independent bulletins and circulars are discontinued to be superseded by a magazine called Journal of Research, for the use of technical schools and by a series of popularly written bulletins for the use of the general public. By this plan the saving of a considerable sum of money, it is said, will annually be effected. The Journal will be distributed to colleges, technical schools, experiment stations and libraries and will be sold. The series of farmers' bulletins will be continued. The object of these is to tell the people how to do important things. They will contain practical statements with regard to farming, stockraising and fruit growing.

CURIOUS ACACIA TREE.

It Gets Peevish and Ugly and Odorous When Disturbed.

In Idaho there exists a species of the acacia tree which is entitled to be classed as one of the wonders of plant life. When full grown it closes its leaves together in coils each day at sunset and curls its twigs to the shape of pigtails.

When the tree has thus settled itself for the night's sleep it is said that if touched it will flutter as if agitated or impatient at the disturbance. The oftener, it is averred, the foliage is molested the more violent will become the shaking of the branches. Finally, it is further alleged, if the shaking is continued the tree will at length emit a nauseating odor quite sufficient to induce a headache in the case of the person disturbing the tree.

In Idaho it is called the "angry tree," and it is said that it was discovered by men who on making camp for the night placed one end of a canvas covering over one of the sensitive bushes, using it for a support. Immediately the tree began to jerk its branches sharply. The motion continued with increasing "nervousness" until at last came a sickening odor that drove the tired campers to a more friendly location.—Harper's Weekly.

A GLIMPSE BACK THROUGH YEARS

(John E. M. Kerr.)

March 16, 1871.

There is every prospect of a new hotel being opened shortly in the building on the southwest corner of Court and Main streets, this town. A gentleman from Xenia, we understand, has rented the property for that purpose. The location is a good one.

Col. Yeoman's sales of dry goods, during the year ending March 1st amounted to $166,572.42. We doubt if there is another town the size of Washington, in the state where business is better and where property and rents are so high as here.

Duffee For Shoes and Boots. Have a new stock of goods just in time for the winter market, consisting of a superior article of shoes and boots and overshoes and everything required to keep the feet dry and warm, which sells at prices that will meet the views of every honest liberal minded person, who wishes to buy a first rate article and to keep their "understanding" comfortable. Call and see the stock and you will be sure to buy and get the worth of your money. Duffee sells leather. Duffee does repairing.

Queer English.

Tokyo contains some queer specimens of English. One would scarcely be familiar with the name "How-jindu Maru" painted on the bow of a Japanese junk, and yet "How-jindu" is not a bad reproduction of "How do you do?" probably the only English phrase that the owner of the boat had ever heard. Having the courage of his ignorance, he treated it as a single word, combined it with a Japanese suffix applied to sailing vessels and gave it with pride to his honorable junk.

Another Japanese refers to himself as the "cheerful barber," a laundryman gives notice that he is a "high wash-man," and a sartorial artist describes himself as "the sublime tailor." A shop signboard bears the words "Nourishing Drugs."

An Unusual Look.

"Do you think this new photograph of mother looks like her, father?" asked the daughter.

"No; I don't," replied the father.

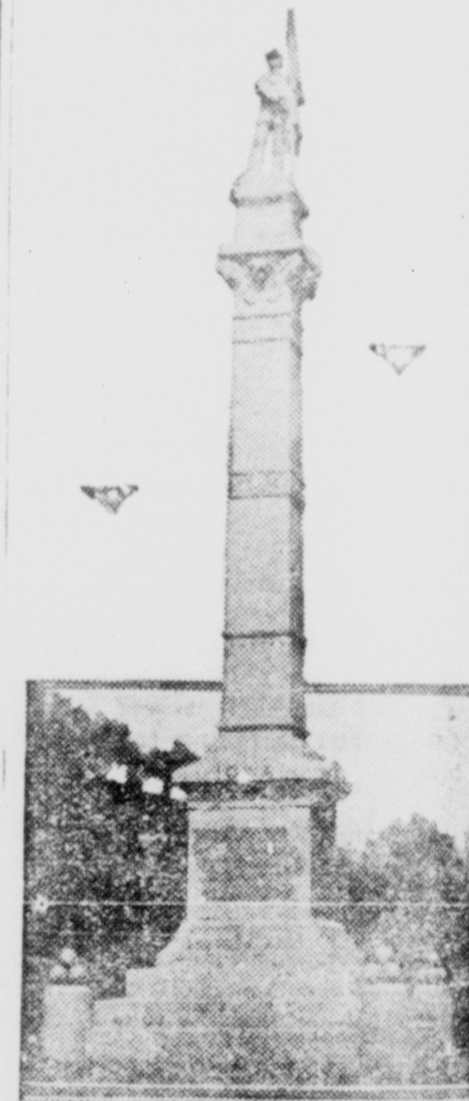

"What do you suppose is the matter with it?"

"Why, I suppose the man told your mother to look pleasant and she was trying to do it."—Yonkers Statesman.

How Could She Tell?

"North," said the mistress, "are these French sardines that you have given me?"

"Sure. Of don't know, ma'am," said the new waitress. "They were pasht spokin' when we opened the box."—Ladies' Home Journal.

American Cities Are Failures

By Professor
CHARLES E.
MERRIAM.

Cost Most but Give Least In Return

Alderman of Chicago

IN AMERICAN CITIES THE FAILURE OF THE GOVERNMENT TO KEEP PACE WITH THE CHANGES GOING ON AROUND US HAS LED TO DISASTROUS RESULTS. THE GOVERNMENT OF OUR CITIES IN GENERAL IS NEITHER AS EFFICIENT, AS ECONOMICAL NOR AS POPULAR AS IS DESIRABLE AND POSSIBLE. IT IS GENERALLY RECOGNIZED THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF OUR CITIES IS THE MOST EXPENSIVE AND LEAST EFFICIENT IN THE WORLD. WE PAY MORE AND RECEIVE LESS THAN THE CITIES OF OTHER COUNTRIES.

Inefficient government might be tolerated if it represented the people. But most cities during the last generation have been governed by a combination of POLITICAL MACHINES AND SPECIAL INTERESTS.

The political boss and the public service corporation have been the chief factors in our municipal system. They have endeavored to dominate both political parties and to reduce all elections to a friendly contest BETWEEN TWO SETS OF THEIR OWN PUPPETS. These interests have been themselves entirely nonpartisan, though they have worked in and through political parties and have used party names, party symbols and party principles as a CLOAK FOR THEIR OWN PROJECTS.

They hide behind Lincoln and Roosevelt or Jefferson and Jackson as prudence indicates. They have relied upon the division of honest citizens into opposing political camps, while they themselves have organized and combined with entire disregard of party line or party distinction.

OUTRIGHT GRAFT AND THEFT ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR MUCH OF THE LOSS THAT FALLS UPON THE TAXPAYER. THE EXISTENCE OF THE SPOILS SYSTEM IS ENORMOUSLY EXPENSIVE AND WASTEFUL.

The general atmosphere of politics surrounding the average city hall is not favorable to the adoption of systematic and orderly business methods. We cannot expect to secure a proper system of street cleaning if every laborer and team has to be selected because of Republican or Democratic affiliations. Repeated investigations of the expenditures of city governments have revealed FRAUD, FAVORITISM AND INEFFICIENCY ON A TREMENDOUS SCALE.

MURDER MYSTERY

NURSE ACCUSED

She is Charged With the Murder of a Young Physician.

Utica, N. Y., Aug. 5.—Charged with the murder of Dr. Stanley E. Tron, a brilliant young physician of Utica, formerly connected with the Lying-in Hospital in New York city, Miss Emma E. Kritt, a professional nurse who had posed as the physician's wife, was brought here from Cornwall-on-Hudson. After listening for a half hour to the depositions read by the judge before whom she was arraigned, Miss Kritt fell in a faint. When she recovered she refused to discuss the charge.

The Kellys were going to Van Wert to visit relatives when the automobile skidded on the road and upset.

Another Muddle On The Sky Line

In Cleveland on the night of Aug. 2. The warrant was sworn to by Arthur McKernan, assistant to Charles S. Gough, secretary of the association. With McKernan's arrest, Gough said he would initiate a political party to prevent a referendum on the Warnes bill which will make state. He named high officials as engaged in the alleged plot.

The case which the association claims to have started up against Democratic leaders through Bureau detectives involved a disreputable episode. It is said to have involved in the legislative bribery scandal.

In a statement Gough says: "Several weeks ago we received information that an organization had been perfected to prevent the referendum on the Warnes bill by a disreputable means. We immediately turned this matter over to the Bureau detectives. They were disappointed what they said to be a political party was being organized to be perpetrated on the Warnes bill. They were put out when they found the force names, signatures of the people and of persons who were engaged in such a manner that our authorities would believe them to be genuine. That the petitions could be thrown out and the organization of our collectors and the association."

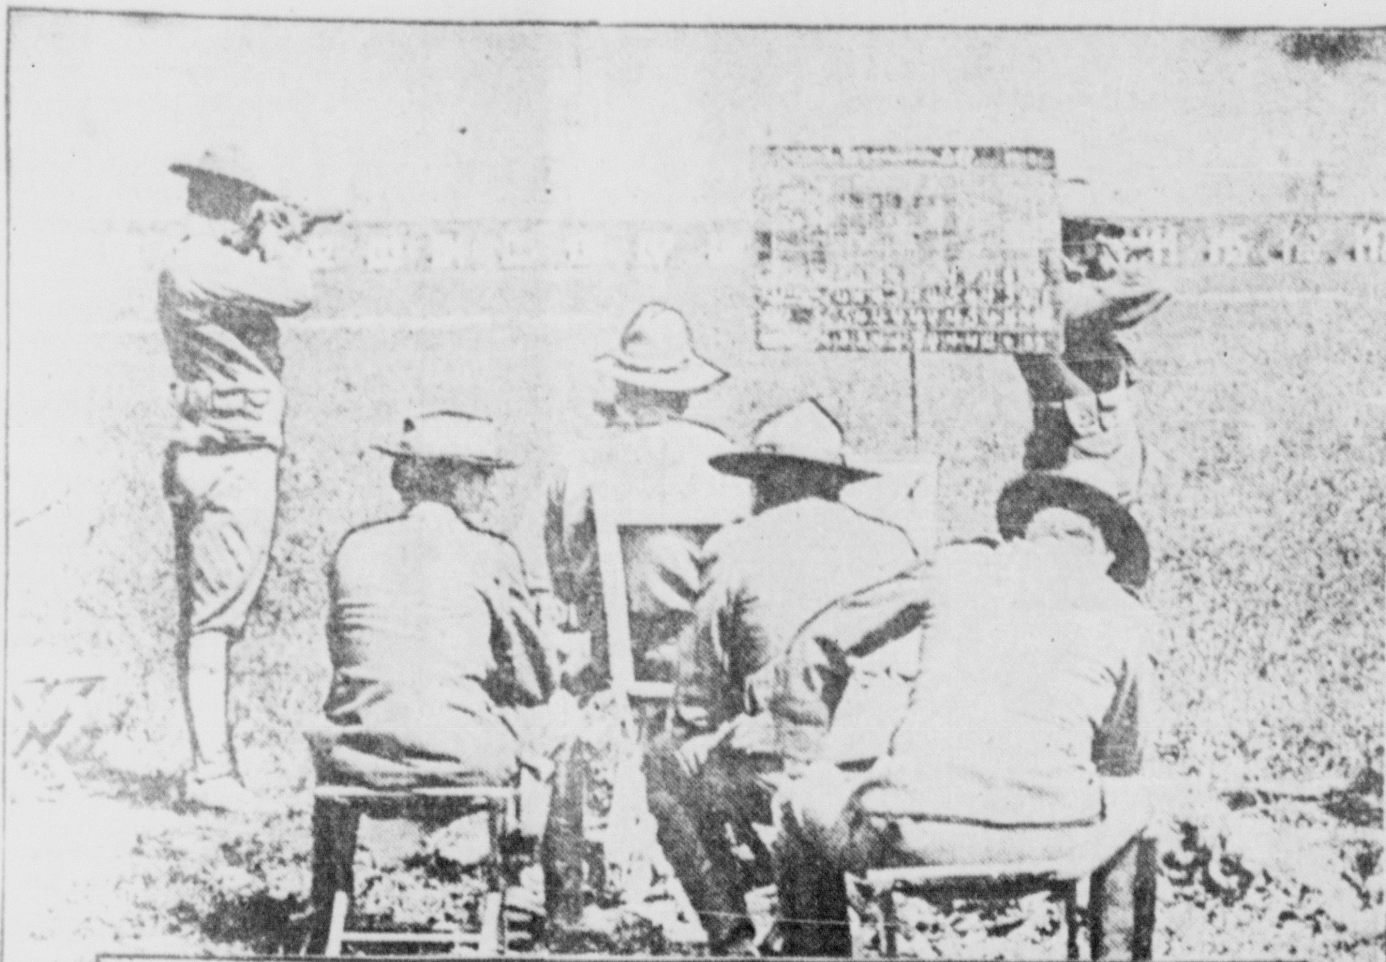

"The following persons have been more or less active in planning or executing moves in opposition to the referendum: State Chairman William L. Finley, a Mr. Smith of the board of review of Ashtabula, J. H. Shattuck of the Cleveland board of review, C. C. McKernan, author of Henry county, Samuel J. Vining of Mercer county, James Devine, recently appointed by Governor Cox as superintendent of the building and loan department, and John McNally of Springfield."

board. They said they would reserve their commendation of condemnation until the license commissioners displayed their caliber by the way they performed their duties and executed the law.

In Mr. Allen the Progressive party received its first recognition at the hands of Governor Cox for positions of consequence. His appointment is said to forecast the appointment of a number of Progressives on county licensing boards, especially in counties in which the Moose were in majority in last fall's election.

Mr. Sevier has been assistant secretary of state under Charles H. Graves since Mr. Graves became the incumbent in 1911. His home is in Lima. It is said that the selection of Sevier was accomplished by State Chairman W. L. Finley, who is an intimate friend.

S. A. Hopkins of Wapakoneta, constitutional convention delegate, who had been given much consideration for a position on the licensing board, was switched at the last moment to head the civil service commission. The position pays $4,000 a year. Two other commissioners at salaries of $2,500 a year, also are to be named.

Mr. Clendenen is a Cincinnati attorney. He served a term in the state legislature several years ago. He is president of the Ducks club, Cincinnati. His preferences are said to be wet. The other two members of the board never have been classed as to their wet and dry tendencies.

Robert S. Hayes of Dayton, secretary to Governor Cox while in congress and at present commission clerk in the governor's office, is said to be slated for secretary to the state licensing commission. The salary is to be fixed by the commission, with the approval of the governor.

Frank L. McElroy, a clerk in the secretary of state's office, has been appointed assistant secretary of state by Mr. Graves, to succeed Mr. Sevier. McElroy thus is elevated from a $1,200 job to one which pays $3,000. Mr. McElroy came from Ada, Hardin county.

prefer, he said, "to take my case another court."

Robert McFarter, attorney for the National Association of Manufacturers, faced the committee with a vigorous support of the same statements. James A. Emery, Washington counsel for the N. A. M., likewise lodged the same charge.

Chairman Overman and Senator Reed declared there was nothing in the interviews which could be taken as indicating that they had prejudged the case.

Watson wrote to Chairman Garrett, requesting a hearing before the house committee. He will be heard at the conclusion of Mulhall's testimony.

Senator Townsend of Michigan flatly denied Mulhall's testimony that he had talked with him and he characterized Mulhall as a "self-acknowledged corruptionist."

Mulhall took the stand to identify a $500 check he said he drew April 7, 1909, to be turned over to H. A. Niles of Racine, Wis., for a retainer for former Congressman James E. Watson when the manufacturers wanted Watson to work for a tariff commission bill.

House Probe Under Way.

When the house committee began its hearings today, Louis Seibold of the New York World was the first witness, to lay the foundation for the examination of Mulhall.

Mulhall will be dealt with much less leniently than he has been by the senate committee. He probably will be called tomorrow, and may be on the stand several weeks. Several times during his examination on the senate side the lobbyist hinted at explosions he might cause when he got to the house, and it is generally agreed that he referred to stories of adventures in the night life of the capital.

FUNERAL SERVICES MRS. JACOB JAMISON

The funeral services of Mrs. Jacob Jamison were held Monday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Curran, on West Court street.

The deceased having been a member of one of the old families of the county and widely connected both by blood and marriage, the funeral was very largely attended, many personal friends joining in sympathy with the bereaved family.

Rev. F. M. Evans, pastor of Grace M. E. church, of Gallipolis, O., and a former pastor of the Jamisons, conducted the services, which were tender and impressive.

Miss Edith Gardner sang beautifully the hymns "Nearer My God to Thee" and "The Rock of Refuge."

A wealth of beautiful flowers lay around the quiet sleeper and covered the casket, borne by nephews and cousins, Messrs. H. F. and J. W. Jamison, Messrs. Loren and Thomas Conner, Clifton and Harry Pavey.

Those who came from a distance were the son, Mr. Thos. Jamison and wife, the daughter, Mrs. R. C. Schnake, husband and daughter, Josephine, of Chicago; Mrs. Swartz, Mrs. Schlessinger, Mrs. Spangler, Miss Maude Curran, Chicago; Mrs. J. E. Purry, Springfield and a large number from New Holland, Sabina and the country nearby.

The burial was made in the Washington cemetery.

The minister gave a brief memoir.

MEMOIR.

Mrs. Josephine Curran Jamison, daughter of John and Malissa Ann Curran, was born in Highland county, Ohio, April 1st, 1855 and departed this life in Washington C. H., O., August 1st, 1913, in the 59th year of her age.

She was united in marriage to Jacob L. Jamison October 15th, 1872. To them three children, two sons and one daughter, were born.

Mrs. Jamison was a devoted mother, a devoted self-sacrificing mother. She was a good neighbor, was ready to help those whom she could.

When a little girl she united with the Methodist Episcopal church. She was ever interested in the church, and when in health found pleasure in her services. For many years she has been in poor health, which deprived her of all church privileges.

Last Monday she was operated upon for gall stones, but her weakened condition could not stand the shock and she passed to her reward, Friday evening. Love and devotion of husband and family, and the best of medical and surgical skill were unavailing to save this good woman's life.

But for this Christian, "to die is gain," death is only the birth into immortal life, the day of coronation.

I was her pastor for four years.

Mrs. Jamison is survived by her husband, one son, Thomas C., of Parkersburg, W. Va., one daughter, Mrs. Donna Schnake, of Chicago, and one grandson, Frank V. Jamison, of Washington C. H., and granddaughter Josephine Donna Schnake, of Chicago; her mother, Mrs. Curran, of West Court street, four sisters, namely, Mrs. Mary J. Swartz, Mrs. Sarah Spangler, Mrs. Frances Schlessinger and Miss Maude Curran, of Chicago, and many friends.

"So live, that when thy summons comes to join

The innumerable caravan, which moves

To that mysterious realm, where each shall take

His chamber in the silent halls of death,

Thou go not, like the quarry slave at night,

Scouraged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed

By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,

Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch

About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

SURPRISE PARTY.

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. O. B. Grove, a former resident of this city, gathered at her home in Dayton, during her absence Thursday evening, and gave her a delightful surprise when she returned.

Among the many presents she received was a lovely cut glass bowl.

Mrs. Grove and son, Harold, expect to leave for their new home in Detroit, Mich., about Sept. 1st.

Mrs. Grove having already left for that city to accept the position as local freight agent for the P. M. R. R.

Mr. Grove was formerly C. H. & D. agent here.

Banker's Wife Wins Divorce Suit But Must Take $15,000 a Year Instead of $78,000 She Asked For

[Mrs. GEORGE G. HEYE]

New York, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Blanche Heye, the beautiful wife of George Gustave Heye, the banker, has won her divorce suit. Mrs. Heye in bringing her suit mentioned Miss Myrtle Heye, an actress, as correspondent. Pending the settlement of the suit she applied for $78,000 a year alimony. The justice granted her $15,000, and at the same time administered a tart rebuke, saying she had had "a soft thing" and lost it. Mrs. Heye expects to sail for Europe soon. She will have the custody of her two children.

MUTINY FOLLOWS SING SING FIRE

New Warden Quickly Stops Trouble In Prison.

DAMAGE REACHES $200,000

One of the Convicts Told Clancy That Fellow Prisoner Started Fire Out of "Pure Devilishness"—Leaders of Riot Transferred to Another Prison.

Ossining, N. Y.—Following a fire in Sing Sing prison, the old structure in which many New York state prisoners are now confined, serious rioting and mutiny occurred among the convicts prior to the removal of the leaders of the disturbances to Auburn prison, a new state institution. The total damage caused by two fires, one of which beyond doubt was of incendiary origin, amounts to $200,000.

The trouble at the prison followed close after the appointment of John N. Clancy as warden to succeed ex-Warden Kennedy, who has been indicted since his removal from office. The new warden, however, was quick to act, and the trouble was soon quelled, although several hundred convicts were confined in their cells for several days and kept on a diet of bread and water.

Efforts were made during an investigation which followed to ascertain the names of the convicts who were responsible for starting the fire in the prison. Several of the convicts were called in as witnesses. One of the men stated that he heard that the fire was started out of "pure devilishness" by one of the prisoners.

It was learned that cocaine has come into the prison in considerable quantities in the sheets purchased for their cots by the convicts. These sheets are soaked in cocaine, and so are the leaves of books brought in to the prisoners. The prisoners suck the sheets or the leaves of the books to get the drug. Since the fire, it was said, much cocaine had come into the prison in spite of the vigilance of the warden and keepers. It was said that this had been responsible for much of the trouble.

It was learned also that the leaders of the disturbance were locked up in the so called "coolers." There are ten of these coolers, and they were all full. They are outside of the cell block on a level with the Hudson river, and are dark, damp cells seven feet long, six feet seven inches in height and three feet three inches wide. They have two doors, the first of wire and the outside one of wood. In the doors there are two little holes for ventilation, but they do not admit any light. These coolers figured in the presentment returned by the grand jury last June, and in view of this some surprise was expressed that Warden Clancy had made use of them.

BANK FOR NEEDY POETS.

Genius Can Draw Checks Without Making Deposit.

Paris.—All Paris knows that many struggling French poets, authors and artists have come to the capital only to succumb in the struggle to exist on the meager incomes of their early days. Starvation and illness have done for them before they could earn enough to live. But the path to artistic fame will in the future be made easier. A poet in need will be able to apply to the "poets' bank" and have his immediate wants relieved.

The bank is the idea of a number of young writers who have been successful. It will extend financial aid to needy poets and authors during their period of wooing fame.

Bites of Insects.

This remedy against the bites of insects appeared in a recent issue of the China Medical Journal: "Take one ounce of epsom salts and dissolve it in one pint of water. Wet a bath cloth wet enough that it will not drip and rub the body well all over and not wipe afterward, but dress. I am very certain that flies, gnats, fleas, bedbugs, mosquitoes or the famous African fly will never touch persons so treated. A somewhat stronger solution applied and allowed to dry will leave a fine powder that the most blood-thirsty insects will not attack."

A Way Pins Have.

She was hurriedly adjusting her veil and had but a few moments in which to catch her car. "Oh, dear," she murmured. "I can't find a pin anywhere! I wonder where all the pins go to, anyway?"

"That's a difficult question to answer," replied her practical husband, who was standing by, "because they are always pointed in one direction and headed in another."—Arronaut.

WEDDING CAUSE OF FAMILY ROW

Son of General Grant Was Secretly Married.

BRIDE'S THIRD HUSBAND.

May Disinherit Sons and Daughters Because They Refuse to Attend Wedding Dinner—Only One Child There. Start Immediately on Bridal Trip Around the World.

San Diego, Cal.—U. S. Grant, Jr., son of the famous general, and Mrs. America Will, who claims descent from the hidalgos who discovered and settled California, have been married. The ceremony took place at the home of Justice Puterbaugh, a police court judge and an old friend of Mr. Grant, without premeditation on the part of either Mr. or Mrs. Grant.

The announcement of the wedding was made at a dinner. The dinner was a disappointment in a way. Many old friends of Mr. Grant refused to attend, and the only child of the aged bridegroom present was U. S. Grant 4th, a junior at Harvard.

Friends and relatives of Mr. Grant have been bitter in their opposition to this his second marriage, and have pleaded with him not to wed again. His grown son, Chaffee Grant, and his three daughters refused to recognize their mother-in-law. As a consequence,

U. S. GRANT, JR.

It is asserted that Mr. Grant has decided to cut off his children in his will unless they change their minds and show some recognition of the second Mrs. Grant.

The children, on the other hand, declare that they will stand firm in their attitude toward Mrs. Will. It is reported that Chaffee Grant has engaged an attorney and purposes to take the matter into court.

The couple sailed immediately for Sydney, Australia, and from there go to Cape Town, thence into the interior of Africa.

From the Cape country they sail for Buenos Aires. The latter part of the trip has not been definitely decided. They will return to San Diego, however, in time for the Panama-Pacific exposition in 1915.

This will make a bridal tour of a year and a half. Mr. Grant stated that there was to be no effort to follow the line of travel of his father, General Grant, in his famous tour of the world.

HEN IS NURSING SORROW.

She's Pheasants' Foster Mother, Not Knowing What They'll Do.

Pittman, N. J.—A brood of English pheasant fledglings is thriving in the barnyard of Harry Landers, between this place and Richwood, with a hen for their foster mother. She had been on the eggs only a day when the strange looking chicks popped out. That broke all her hatching records.

Landers found the nest of eggs in his grainfield a few days ago. He was startled by a flutter of wings as the whirling knives of his machine passed over the hidden nest. The frightened mother pheasant flew to the cover of a wood. She did not return, and Landers determined a more commonplace bird should take her place.

Thackeray at the Minstrels.

When the Christy minstrels came to London in 1857 Thackeray was enchanted with them. "I heard not long since," he says in one of his letters, "a minstrel who performed a negro ballad that, I confess, moistened these spectacles in a most unexpected manner. I have gazed on thousands of tragedy queens dying on the stage and expiring in appropriate blank verse, and I never wanted to wipe them. They have looked up, he said, at many scores of clergymen without being dimmed, and, behold, a vagabond, with a coked face and a banjo, sings a little song and strikes a wild note which sets the heart thrilling with happy pity." Gladstone, too, was an admirer of the Christy minstrels and was often to be seen listening to their songs with rapt attention.—London Chronicle.

FINLEY DENIES GONGWER CLAIM

W. L. FINLEY.

Special to Herald.

Columbus, O., Aug. 5.—Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of the State, Mr. Wm. L. Finley, today issued an emphatic denial of the statement of Charles Gongwer, of Cleveland, that the administration used questionable methods to prevent the filing of referendum petitions on the Warnes and Kilpatrick measures.

Chairman Finley charges that it is an attempt to throw dust in the eyes of the people and thus blind them to the gigantic frauds unearthed in the petitions against the Workman's Compensation law.

BAPTIST PICNIC OCCURS TOMORROW

The annual picnic of the First Baptist church will be held in the Willis grove in Millwood tomorrow, and every member of the church and Sunday school is urged to attend without fail and enjoy the day.

The picnic commences in the morning and extends throughout the day. In addition to the picnic dinner at the noon hour, ball games and many other contests will make the day a pleasant one.
